MR. 1935.—

In pursuance of the powers conferred by section 39 of the Madras City Municipal Act, 1914 (Madras Act IV of 1914), as amended by Madras Act 5 of 1926, and in pursuance of all powers vested in the Mayor, the Corporation sitting with Members in secret session to make the following rules for the election of

- (a) aldermen,
 - (b) Mayor and Deputy Mayor,
 - (c) members of standing committees, and
 - (d) members of standing committees,
- of the Corporation of Madras.

1.

Rules for the election of aldermen.

1. Every candidate for election as an alderman shall be proposed by one councillor and seconded by another at the meeting held for the purpose. The proposer shall, when proposing the name of any candidate, deliver to the Mayor or to any member of the Deputy Mayor and to the aldermen of both the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor, to the presiding councillor, a declaration in writing, expressing the candidate's willingness to stand for election as an alderman signed by the candidate and by the proposer. The names of all the candidates who have been proposed and seconded shall be read out by the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor, as the case may be.

2. If the number of candidates whose names are so read out is equal to the number of vacancies, the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor, as the case may be, shall declare all such candidates duly elected.

3. If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor, as the case may be, shall declare all such candidates duly elected and shall order all the high commissioners or officers, the directors to fill up the remaining vacancy or vacancies by the next meeting of the Council.

4. If the number of such candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, the votes of the councillors present at the meeting shall be taken by ballot. The Commissioners shall make adequate arrangements to secure the privacy of the ballot.

5. Every councillor wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all such candidates shall be typed or legibly written in the following form:—

Name.	Vote.
(3)

Each councillor shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there place a mark against the name of the candidate in the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold up the voting paper or so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot-box placed in the view of the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor, as the case may be. The ballot-box shall be so constructed that the voting paper may be placed therein but not withdrawn therefrom without the box being opened. The Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor, as the vote may be, shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of two members who shall be nominated before the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding member, as the case may be.

6. The candidate who obtains the largest number of votes, or if there is more than one vacancy, as many of the candidates as the top of the poll as there are vacancies to be filled, shall be declared to have been duly elected. If there is no equality of votes between any two of the candidates and the election of any one to any one of the seats of the candidates will result in a tie, then the presiding member, the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding member, as the case may be, shall decide by drawing lots in the presence of the committee, as much one or more of such candidates such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given.

7. Any voting paper which contains the signatures or initials of any of the voters, or any of which such are placed on any more candidates than there are vacancies to be filled, shall be invalid.

II

Name.	Vote.
(1)
(3)

He shall then fold up the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot-box. The ballot-box shall be so constructed that the voting paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the key being turned. The Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor or alderman as the case may be, shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of the councillors and aldermen and declare the result of the election.

3. If no vote is recorded, a fresh election shall be held forthwith in accordance with these rules.

4. (1) If there are two candidates the one who obtains the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been elected. The Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor or alderman as the case may be, shall preside in drawing lots in the presence of the Council which of the candidates shall be considered to have been eliminated. The elimination shall be repeated until two candidates only are left, when votes shall be taken at the last time and the candidate who obtains the larger number of votes shall be considered to have been elected. 5. If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor or alderman shall declare all such candidates duly elected and shall either call for fresh nominations or adjourn the election to fix up the necessary vacancy or vacancies at the next meeting of the Council.
